P. SUBBA RAO,
Offg. Manager.

Notice dated 27th July 1920.

I, the undersigned Veerabhadrapa, son of Krishnagiri Appanna, Saraf and merchant, the Nagarthar Community, residing in Nagarthpet, Bangalore City do hereby give notice as follows:—

I have three sons by name.—

- (1) Veerabhadrapa alias Appaji.
- (2) Chikveerabhadrapa alias Appajappa.
- (3) Appanna alias Appu.

All have attained their age of majority. Of these first Veerabhadrapa alias Appaji has been for a short time back taking meals in my brother Shamaana's house. All the movable and immovable properties, I own are myself acquired properties. Some times documents showing myself acquisition have been made to stand in the name of my first son Veerabhadrapa alias Appaji. All the properties and the existing debts appertain to the joint family. I learn that my first son has been trying to alienate some of the properties on the strength of the document standing in his name. Though he cannot do so by himself alone. I hereby warn all persons against having dealings with my first son alone with respect to the family properties.

VEERABHADRAPA.
